

2007 INDIANA COMMERCIAL REAL ESTATE CONFERENCE: ANOTHER SUCCESS

2007 ICBR
Conference
Committee

With over 550 commercial real estate professionals, 27 speakers and 8 hours of continuing education credit, the 2007 Indiana Commercial Real Estate Conference was a great success.

This year's annual conference was another great success with over 560 people in attendance. The Indiana Commercial Real Estate Conference, presented by the Indiana Commercial Board of REALTORS® and the Harlos Foundation, is the only event designed specifically for commercial real estate professionals. Investing in Commercial Real Estate and How Mega Projects are Changing Downtown Real Estate were such popular sessions there was standing-room only.

In addition to educational sessions, ICBR also conducts its annual election of officers and directors. Congratulations to the newly elected individuals:

Bart Book, President
Ken Newcomb, Vice President
Spero Pulos, Secretary/Treasurer
David Reed, Director at Large

Congratulations also go out to Stan Evans, who was presented ICBR's 2007 REALTOR of the Year award.

The success of this year's conference comes from contributions of 25 corporate sponsors, 27 speakers, 16 exhibitors and last, but not least, the annual conference committee. It also comes from the vast array of people who come to network and learn. Thanks to all who took time out of busy schedules to participate.

Save the Date - November 14, 2008

Don't miss next year's Indiana Commercial Real Estate Conference on November 14, 2008 at the Indianapolis Marriott Downtown. For up to date conference information visit www.indianarealestateconference.com.
