

ICREX Training Series

ICREX is a commercial information exchange controlled and maintained by ICBR members.

Join Now.

ICREX Training Series, Newsletter Volume 1, Issue 4

January 2, 2008

Communicating with ICBR Members Through Email

Points of Interest

The ICREX website provides subscribers with broadcast email capability. You can email other ICBR members several different ways: (1) email a property listing; (2) email multiple listings; and (3) send a broadcast email. Download detailed instructions on sending email from the "Help Desk" section of the ICREX Homepage (Help Topic: How Do I Email a Listing or Send General Email). To access the broadcast email feature you must login to the website.

Setting Your Email Preferences

ICREX Training Series Archives

To login:

1. Go to www.icbor.com.
2. Click on the "ICREX Home" link in the upper right-hand corner.
3. Click the "Login" tab and enter your username and password.

Setting Email Preferences

ICREX also allows you to decide what types of emails you want to receive. Download detailed instructions on setting email preferences from the "Help Desk" section of the ICREX Homepage (Help Topic: How Do I Set Broadcast Email Preferences). As with sending email, you will need to log in to access this feature.

ICREX Training Series Archives

Did you delete an important ICREX Training Series email? No worries. Issues of the ICREX Training Series are archived as PDF documents on the ICBR homepage. Just go to www.icbor.com and click on "News & Information".

Copyright 2007